Directions:

Heading north out of Portree on the A87 heading towards Uig. Take the second Borve turning which will be on your right just after the turning on your left signposted Dunvegan. The turning to the properties is just on your left as you pass over the cattle grid.

Location:

The crofting community of Borve is located just some 4 miles north of the town of Portree, the island's capital. The properties are the ideal base for walkers and sight-seers alike being centrally located on the island within easy access of all areas. There is an abundance of wildlife to look out for in the surrounding area including the huge Sea Eagles with their white tipped tails, Golden Eagles, the resident seal colony in Loch Dunvegan and, if you are really lucky, you may even spot a whale, porpoise or dolphin on your travels. Primary schooling can be found locally in the nearby MacDiarmid and secondary schooling is available in Portree with a school bus service in operation. Portree is a lively and prosperous town with excellent services including supermarkets, shops, leisure facilities, a cottage hospital, modern medical centre and an excellent selection of hotels and restaurants.
