Description:

Creag Dubh is a substantial detached four/five bedroom bungalow located in the picturesque township of Conordon, Braes affording panoramic sea views of the Inner Sound to the Isle of Raasay, the Red Cuillins and towards the mainland and the Five Sisters of Kintail.

Creag Dubh is a bright and spacious detached four-bedroom bungalow set in an elevated position affording widespread sea and mountain views. The property is conveniently located within 5 miles of Portree and all the amenities the village has to offer. The property offers flexible family accommodation with bright, well proportioned rooms and ample built in storage space throughout.

The generous accommodation within comprises of: entrance vestibule, hallway, living room, dining room, kitchen, rear vestibule, utility room, two shower rooms, study and four bedrooms (3 en-suite). The property further benefits from timber frame double glazing throughout and oil-fired central heating with an open fire in the living room.

Externally, the property is set within large fully enclosed garden grounds extending to approximately 1 acre or thereby (to be confirmed by title deed) which are mainly laid to lawn with established trees, shrubs and bushes. The property is accessed via a gravel driveway with ample parking available to the front of the property. In addition is a small block built shed with light and power.

Creag Dubh has previously operated as a successful bed and breakfast and would equally make a stunning family home. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the setting and views on offer.
